

Hengistbury Head . Walk, Beach Picnic, Land Train Ride &, Visitor Centre.

March 24 2018.

Would you pay £300,000 yes really! For a beach hut to have us lot sit in front of you?

But what views from the head land.

Seven, members made it to Hengistbury car park, ready for a walk to the beach. Two of our members, Eddie & Ceri, were roughing it in Lanzarote, Whilst two more, Jean & Alan, were suffering in the Caribbean. Tough life for some. Bring back some Sunshine, please.

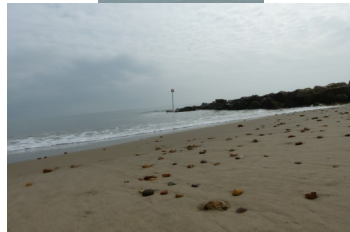

Six, managed to complete the walk whist I, with a damaged Achilles tendon caught the land train. With a low wall as a wind break, the picnic, overlooking the beach, was very enjoyable . We all caught the land train back. Lesley & Alan went home. Pat, Peter &, Bonnie went to the visitors centre, Whilst Debbie and I went to Asda in Poole to collect my new glasses , a quick tea then off to Poole Yacht Club for the A.G.M. Up early Sunday, drive to the Abingdon School to watch our grand daughter dancing, oh! and in between all this and gusts of wind we got the genoa up.

The "Dorset Devils" were out in force litter picking. What a shame that people drop so much. You bring it, so take it home!

Hengistbury Head.

A familiar sight for all those boaters who travel from Poole to the Solent.

Wonderful Christchurch Harbour Views.
